

◆2021 Best In Show◆
Cobb County Daylily Society

Once upon a time, there was a great daylily show,
Available for exhibitors, who just love to grow,
There was this fellow, who entered a small flower,
For the day before, it kept looking better every hour,
This daylily had no mouth, but seemed to speak,
A thousand wonderful words, so mild and meek,
It's registered name was 'Lime Tree Delight',
For on June 5th, it displayed it's amazing might,
Best Small was not enough, so it made a happy departure,
To the Best In Show exhibit, for the dazzling David Arthur.
